Our last very well attended Members' Evening was a lively trip down the Players' memory lane! Our very own Miss Jan Hunt and Mr Peter John took us back to their earliest connections with the Players. Mr Lawrence Payne provided the orchestral accompaniment with our very own Reverend Lee Taylor leading the singalongs.

We are, as always, very grateful to Mr Frank Taylor for his dedication in arranging these superb evenings.

For our next evening we are planning to show some historical footage of music hall stars and the Players. Details will follow later.

The Roebuck is only a short distance from the Royal Oak. Nearest tube station is Borough.
